

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

I have all but given up on American mainstream media because it does not give balanced information. I am finding that international press, even Pravda gives me better information than any cable or local television or radio station. Many people are giving up AM, FM, and television. Personally I know people who are broadcasting from shortwave and are better than what we are receiving. This is ironical because Radio Free Europe and the like was what inspired many cloistered countries whose propaganda got so bad, shortwave was the only "decent" media they had.
